

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

STAFF SERGEANT CORRY L. CRESAP

SSgt Cresap is the NCOIC of Administration, Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps, Detachment 215, Indiana University. In this capacity, SSgt Cresap is responsible for cadet pay to include scholarship/financial aid monitoring and tuition payments. In addition, he is the Detachment; Safety Monitor, Records Custodian Manager, and Detachment Information Technology Account Manager.

SSgt Cresap entered the USAF in December of 2012 as a Knowledge Operations Manager. In this role, he has served to support the training & operational readiness of Air Combat Command's electronic jamming platform, the COMPASS CALL's EC-130H. He has deployed to Qatar in 2015 in support of Operations FREEDOM'S SENTINEL & INHERENT RESOLVE.

SSgt Cresap's military decorations include three Air Force Achievement medals, Two Meritorious Unit Awards, AF Outstanding Unit Award and National Defense Service Medal.

EDUCATION

- 2013- Knowledge Operations Management Technical School, Keesler AFB MS. (Distinguished Graduate)
- 2016- Airman Leadership School, In Residence, Davis-Monthan AFB AZ. (Distinguished Graduate)

ASSIGNMENTS

1. May 2013 – Jan 2017, Knowledge Ops Manager/Admin Specialist, 55 ECG, Davis-Monthan AFB AZ
2. Feb 2017 - Present, NCOIC, Admin, Detachment 215, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN

DATES OF PROMOTION

- Airman First Class – Feb 2013
- Senior Airman – Jun 2015
- Staff Sergeant – Jun 2017