

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

TECHNICAL SARGENT JASON R. GARDNER

TSgt Gardner is the NCOIC of Personnel, Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps, Detachment 215, Indiana University. In this capacity, TSgt Gardner is responsible for cadet records / personnel actions, and cadet pay to include scholarship/financial aid monitoring tuition payments. In addition, he is the Detachment; Security Clearance Monitor, Unit Deployment Manager, Unit Fitness Program Manager, and Detachment Safety Rep.

TSgt Gardner entered the USAF in May 2001 as an Aerospace Engineer. In this role, he has served to maintain operational readiness of the Long Range Strategic Bomber, B-1 Lancer. TSgt Gardner Cross-trained into the Personnel career field in 2007. As a Personnelist he has served in numerous group and wing level support positions. TSgt Gardner most recently served as the NCOIC of personnel at AFROTC Detachment 010 at the University of Alabama. He has deployed to Guam in 2003 and in 2011 to Cuba in support of Operation ENDURING FREEDOM

TSgt Gardner's military decorations include the Air Force Commendation medal, Joint Service Achievement Medal, Air Force Achievement Medal, Expeditionary Global War on Terrorism, National Defense Service Medal, and the Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal.

EDUCATION

- 2005- Airman Leadership School, Dyess AFB TX.
- 2005- CCAF Aircraft Maintenance Technology
- 2008- CCAF Human Resources Mgt/Personnel Administration
- 2008- B.S. Technical Mgt, Embry Riddle

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Dec 2001 – Apr 2007, Aero Space Engineer/B-1B, 7 BW, Dyess AFB TX
2. May 2007 – Oct 2008, NCOIC Base Leave and Adverse, 7 BW Dyess AFB TX
3. Nov 2008–Dec 2012, NCOIC Personnel Detachment 010, University of Alabama
- 4, Jan 2013-Present, NCOIC, Personnel, Detachment 215, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN

DATES OF PROMOTION

- Airman First Class – May 2001
- Senior Airman – Mar 2003
- Staff Sergeant – Mar 2005
- Technical Sergeant – Oct 11

